Community Solutions Moves to Bulkley Building, downtown Cleveland

(Cleveland, OH) The Center for Community Solutions' is moving but will remain in Playhouse Square, downtown Cleveland, Ohio; phone numbers and email addresses will not change.

At the end of May, the organization will move from its 10-year home on Huron Road to the Bulkley Building, 1501 Euclid Avenue, Suite 310, Cleveland, OH 44115. Offices will be closed from Wednesday, May 26 through Monday, May 31; all phone and email lines will be out of order during that time. The office will re-open on June 1. An open house event will be scheduled for a later date.

While mail will continue to be routed through the main office, satellite offices of Community Solutions will remain at their respective addresses (Family Health team on Prospect Ave.; Research team at the Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs, Cleveland State University; and two Public Policy staff in Columbus).

The Center for Community Solutions is a nonpartisan, nonprofit organization focused on policy and system reform. It provides strategic leadership to improve health, social, and economic conditions. Established in 1913, it is a United Way agency.
