

News Release

From: Roslyn Bucy Miller, 216-781-2944 ext. 511 (rbmiller@CommunitySolutions.com)

Date: December 28, 2009

RE: Community Solutions Welcomes New Board Members & Officers

[Cleveland, Ohio] The Center for Community Solutions will welcome three new members to its Board of Directors in January, 2010:

- Maynard “Mike” A. Buck (Benesch; Westlake resident)
- M.C. “Terry” Hokenstad, Ph.D., A.C.S.W. (Case Western Reserve University; Shaker Hts. resident)
- William J. Mountcastle (University Hospitals; Avon Lake resident)

In addition two new officers will join the leadership team:

- Michael J. Peterman, Vice Chair (North Pointe Realty, Inc.; Moreland Hills resident)
- Anne M. Pombier, Vice Chair (Broadview Hts. resident)

Officer re-appointments include Robin C. Cottingham (KeyBank) as Board Chair; Stephen J. Squeri (Jones Day), Vice Chair; Irwin M. Feldman (Case Western Reserve University), Secretary; and Michael S. Mayor, Treasurer.

Buck is a Partner and Chair of the Labor & Employment Practice Group at Benesch. He focuses his practice in the areas of employment-related litigation, collective bargaining, National Labor Relations Board proceedings, EEO counseling, arbitrations, and wage-and-hour matters. He has handled employment matters in a variety of industries and is listed among Ohio Super Lawyers 2004-09 and The Best Lawyers in America® 2010. Buck received his J.D. from the University of Toledo College of Law.

Hokenstad is the Ralph S. and Dorothy P. Schmitt Professor at the Mandel School of Applied Social Sciences, Case Western Reserve University. He also serves as Professor of International Health in the School of Medicine. Long active in international organizations, Hokenstad serves as a consultant to the United Nations and was a member of the U.S. Delegation to the U.N.

World Assembly on Aging in 2002. He has written and lectured extensively and held professional positions abroad. Global aging has been a special focus of his career. Locally, he is the immediate past chair of the Council on Older Persons. Hokenstad received his Ph.D. from Brandeis University's Florence Heller Graduate School for Advanced Studies in Social Welfare.

Mountcastle is Vice President of Institutional Relations and Development for University Hospitals. He serves as campaign manager for the most comprehensive expansion and capital campaign in University Hospitals' 140-year history. He is also lead fundraiser for the Ireland Cancer Center. Mountcastle serves on the Board of the Greater Cleveland Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals, as well as other community organizations. He holds a Masters of Public Administration from the Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs at Cleveland State University.

Peterman is Chief Executive Officer of North Pointe Realty, Inc., current president of the Coventry Village Special Improvement District, a former president of Great Lakes Theater Festival, Jewish Vocational Service, Jewish Community Center of Cleveland and Oakwood Club and a current trustee of Menorah Park Center for Senior Living.

Pombier will join Nordson Corporation in January as director of Corporate Development. Prior to joining Nordson, she held similar positions in both Corporate Development and Finance at Parker Hannifin Corporation, NACCO Industries, and TRW Inc. Throughout her career she has focused on both international and domestic corporate growth initiatives, including mergers, acquisitions, joint ventures, and other forms of strategic alliances. She received her Masters of International Business Studies from the University of South Carolina.

The Center for Community Solutions provides strategic leadership to improve targeted health and social conditions. Nonpartisan and nonprofit, it is focused on policy and system reform. Established in 1913, it is a United Way agency. For more information: www.CommunitySolutions.com.