Celebration of Human Services to discuss how important health and human services issues could be affected by November election

State Senator Dave Burke and outstanding community volunteers will also be honored at event

CLEVELAND, OH – The Center for Community Solutions will host the Celebration of Human Services this Friday at the Hilton Garden Inn in Cleveland.

The Celebration will open at 8:45 am with a media roundtable at the Hilton Garden Inn, and State Senator Dave Burke will be honored with an award for public service.

The opening session will be followed by three discussions about important topics that could be influenced by the election on November 6. The session topics include, Behavioral Health & Criminal Justice Reform, Health Care Coverage & Cost and Poverty and Opportunity.

Nationally recognized experts, as well as members of the public who are impacted by these important issues, will be featured on these panels.

Five notable community volunteers will also be recognized for outstanding contributions to their communities with the Most Treasured Volunteer awards. This year's five outstanding volunteer honorees are Mark Cline of Greater Cleveland Volunteers, LaCoya Head of Catholic Charities, Diocese of Cleveland, Kevin Hughley of the Cuyahoga County Board of Developmental Disabilities, Colleen Moran of the Hospice of the Western Reserve and Terri Noll of the Visiting Nurse Association of Ohio.
