

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 5, 2019

Dani Carlson
Director of Communications
216-282-4583
dcarlson@communitysolutions.com

New edition of Follow the Money focus of forum at Columbus Metropolitan Club

Author Terry Thomas will participate in panel discussion

COLUMBUS, OH – The Center for Community Solutions will partner with the Columbus Metropolitan Club for an upcoming panel discussion, Ohio’s Budget: “Follow the Money” on Wednesday at noon.

Budget expert Terry Thomas, co-author of the upcoming fourth edition of Follow the Money, will give an overview of the new edition and then participate in a panel discussion about the complexities of Ohio’s budget.

“The state budget has a huge impact on the public policies that affect Ohioans,” said Thomas. “I’m grateful for the opportunity to participate in this panel discussion so we can highlight how the state budget has a real local impact.”

Thomas will appear on the panel with Greg Lawson, a research fellow at The Buckeye Institute, Tracy Nájera, Executive Director of the Children’s Defense Fund and Karen Kasler, the Statehouse News Bureau Chief.

For more information, or to register for the upcoming forum visit commsols.com/FTMForum.

Community Solutions will release the fourth edition of Follow the Money at a reception at the Riffe Gallery on February 12. For more information or to register please visit commsols.com/FTMInvite.

-30-