

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 15, 2021

Dani Carlson
Director of Communications
216-282-4583
dcarlson@communitysolutions.com

Professor David B. Miller New Chair of Community Solutions' Board

Miller is an Associate Professor at the Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel School of Applied Social Sciences at Case Western Reserve University.

CLEVELAND, OH – The Center for Community Solutions is proud to announce David B. Miller, Ph.D., MSW, MPH was elected to a two-year term as chair of our board of directors.

“Community Solutions is lucky to have David leading our board,” said John Corlett, Community Solutions’ President and Executive Director. “His insight into our community combined with his strong yet empathetic leadership style will help move Community Solutions forward.”

Miller is an Associate Professor at the Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel School of Applied Social Sciences at Case Western Reserve University. He received his Ph.D. and Masters of Public Health from the University of Pittsburgh and his Master of Social Work from the University of South Carolina.

David B. Miller, Ph.D., MSW, MPH

Miller’s current research focus is on the health status of African-American men. Specifically, he is investigating the awareness and knowledge of Black men regarding prostate cancer, and effects of chronic stress on adolescents and young adults. He has lectured around the United States, and taught in South Korea, Cambodia and the Netherlands. Miller has served as president of South Euclid City Council as well as the president of the Case Western Reserve University Faculty Senate.

“I’m proud, excited, and humbled to serve as Community Solutions board chair,” said Miller, who has served on Community Solutions’ Board of Directors since 2016. “We have such an opportunity, especially now, to accomplish the goal of making the state better and safer for all Ohioans.”

Miller replaces Carter Strang, a partner at Tucker Ellis, as board chair.

To speak with Miller or Corlett please call or text Dani Carlson at 216-282-4583 or email at dcarlson@communitysolutions.com.